

EXPERIENCE UNIVERSITY FOR GRADE 7-12 STUDENTS

Cancellation and Refund Policy

Cancellation by ESU or Queen's University

The ESU reserves the right to cancel any courses prior to the opening of the registration period. In the event that a course is cancelled, ESU will endeavour to replace the course with one similar in nature.

If ESU must cancel a course after registration has opened and students have registered for it, every effort will be made to reallocate a student's enrolment to another course requested by the student.

If ESU is unable to place a student in any of her/his preferred courses, the student will be contacted by ESU with other options for courses with space available. If a student is not placed in a course, a full refund will be offered.

Force Majeure

If ESU or Queen's University is prevented, due to forces beyond its control, from providing the advertised facilities and/or services, you agree that you will hold ESU and Queen's University harmless from any liability financial or otherwise.

Construction activities; acts of terrorism; strikes; labour disputes, including boycotts; acts of God; government restrictions; judicial orders; fire or other casualties; civil unrest; loss of a utility; emergencies or causes beyond its reasonable control which would make it illegal or impossible to provide the proper facilities and/or services to run the program.
